

Industry leading and multiple awarded: I-New's fully digital lightweight BSS at the 2017 MVNOs World Congress.

I-New's lightweight BSS portfolio to be presented at the 2017 MVNOs World Congress in Nice, France, 24-27. April.

Mattersburg, Austria. April 2017.

I-New Unified Mobile Solutions provides industry leading technology solutions for digital business transformation over next generation BSS and platforms. The company's products and services ensure the full digitalization of MVNOs subscriber experience and service management quality through highly competitive products and services at a fraction of legacy system costs.

At the 2017 MVNOs World Congress, I-New will showcase and speak about its state-of-the-art fully digital lightweight BSS which enables MVNOs to profit from an industry-leading end-to-end service model, to launch compelling Mobile business offerings within shortest time to market, to deliver innovation and gain flexibility at highly affordable cost, to monetize services over value adding applications and to master ever-changing technology, regulatory and wholesale related requirements.

I-New's fully digital lightweight BSS also reinforces MNOs to launch MVNOs and b-brands swiftly, to gain additional market shares, to unleash from legacy, to deliver innovation, gain flexibility and certainly to save cost. I-New solutions had been multiple awarded as Best Services to Telecoms and Best MVNE from the global mobile and communication industry and became the preferred choice of leading MNOs such as Telefonica Móvil, Tigo, Spark, Hutchison Telecom, Entel or Telenor in recent years.
